Introductory

The present volume constitutes the 1945 edition of Henderson's Directory of Moose Jaw. The work embodies a complete epitome of the civic, commercial, social, and industrial interests and activities of the municipality. It is a modern Directory in all its parts and includes all the essential features which have proven so satisfactory to our patrons in previous issues; these have been retained and amplified, and improvements have been added as suggested by experience in order to add to the value and usefulness of the Directory thus fully meeting the requirements of patrons; the approbation and continued patronage accorded the work are constant incentives to better service.

The publication has had the benefit and advantage of the complete organization and resources of the publishers, and of the skill and experience of their corps of enumerators and compilers added to the courteous co-operation of citizens, in the production of the volume.

MOOSE JAW POPULATION

The 1941 Dominion Census gave Moose Jaw a population of 20,753.
The City estimated the population in 1945 as 22,500.

ADVERTISING MOOSE JAW

An important function of the Directory is to set forth the characteristics and advantages of the city as a place of residence, as a business location, as an industrial site, and as an educational centre. The Directory acts as a mirror, reflecting all that is noteworthy in the city in the above respects. In order to spread this information regarding the city broadcast over the country, the publishers have placed copies of this issue of the Directory in the directory libraries, where they are readily available for reference use by the public. There they serve as perpetual advertisements of Moose Jaw, for business men the country over realize that the City Directory represents the community as it really is.

The publishers take this opportunity of thanking the citizens for valuable assistance rendered in the way of furnishing information concerning themselves, their friends and their business interests for this Directory, and also the public-spirited and progressive business and professional men for support given in the way of patronage.

Respectfully, The Publishers

HENDERSON DIRECTORIES LIMITED.
